Professor T. R. Robinson,

University of Toronto.

Dear Professor Robinson:

I am sorry that you have been put to inconvenience about your class-room through the use of it without notice for examination purposes. I have spoken to Mr. Bretnar about the matter and showed him your letter. He regrets also that this has happened and has given instructions to Martin to make careful inquiries before arranging for examinations in the future.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.
